

Dear Valued Customer,

MAY 25, 2022

We are pleased to announce that John Edwards Co. Inc. has been acquired by Morrisette, the creative leader in packaging design and supply chain optimization.

Established in 1964, John Edwards Co. is a full service distributor of flexible packaging machinery, films, parts and packaging supplies. For almost 60 years the company has also been known throughout the Southeast for their on-site, factory-trained technical support.

The John Edwards Co. team, currently located in south Charlotte, will move into Morrisette's larger facility in north Charlotte.

Beyond products and services, Morrisette & John Edwards share a similar heritage and core values. Both companies are privately owned, third generation packaging leaders with nearly 120 years of combined experience and expertise in the field.

Moving forward, you can expect a seamless transition, "business as usual", and the addition of Morrisette's resources, extensive warehousing and delivery capabilities.

Bill Morrisette & Charlie Edwards remain extremely proud of our past, but recognize that today, together, we are stronger!

Thank you for your continued support, as we both continue our mission of helping leading companies discover new ways to become more profitable.

Sincerely,

Bill Morrisette, President/CEO | Charlie Edwards, President | John Edwards, Chairman
